

Axion Communications Brand Guidelines

Document: Brand Standards | Category: Marketing & Copywriting | Format: RAG-Optimized PDF

SECTION 1: VOICE AND TONE

Brand Voice: Confident but not arrogant, direct but not blunt, human but not casual.

Tone Style: Senior colleague explaining to a peer.

Positive Example: "Revenue teams catch at-risk accounts before churn happens."

Negative Example: "Our revolutionary platform disrupts the status quo."

Negative Example: "We empower stakeholders to leverage synergistic outcomes."

SECTION 2: APPROVED PRODUCT TERMINOLOGY

Official Name: Axion (Capitalize, never "axion" or "AXION")

AI Descriptor: AI-assisted (Do not use "AI-powered" or "machine learning-powered")

Core Capability: revenue intelligence

Integration Verb: "connects to" or "works with"

SECTION 3: BANNED WORDS AND SUBSTITUTIONS

leverage -> use "use", "apply", or "harness"

synergy/synergistic -> use "collaboration" or "combined effect"

revolutionary/disrupts/game-changing -> avoid unless citing research seamlessly -> use "simply" or remove robust -> use "reliable" or "durable"

solution -> must be qualified (e.g., "software solution") empower -> use "help", "enable", or "allow"

SECTION 4: CLAIM AND CITATION STANDARDS

Quantitative claims (e.g. "23% improvement") require a source citation in long-form content.

Superlative claims require a third-party source published within the last 18 months.

SECTION 5: CHANNEL-SPECIFIC SPECIFICATIONS

LinkedIn: 150 words max; 1-2 sentences per paragraph; CTA: "See it in action" or "Book a demo"

Marketing Email: 300 words max; 2-3 sentences per paragraph; CTA: "Schedule a demo" or "Get started"

Landing Page Headline: 10 words max; Single sentence

Press Release: 400-600 words; AP Style; No CTA in body

SECTION 6: AUDIENCE TONE CALIBRATION

Executive (VP+): Lead with business outcomes. Frame AI as judgment support.

Practitioner: Lead with workflow improvement. Frame AI as time-saving.

Technical: Lead with architecture. Frame AI as data processing layer.

SECTION 7: CALL TO ACTION (CTA) STANDARDS

Approved: "Book a demo", "See it in action", "Schedule a call"

Banned: "Click here", "Learn more", "Get your free trial"

Rule: All CTAs must link to a tracked URL.